ABSTRACT

This catalog lists over 600 sources, including books, records, kits, and filmstrips covering both black American and African history, folklore, literature, and present day life. It is designed to assist personnel in the selection of media for schools. The contents are organized according to the Dewey Decimal Classification System: Generalities; Philosophy; Social Sciences; Folklore; Pure Science; Applied Science; Arts; Music; Recreation; Literature; Geography and History; Collective Biography; Individual Biography; Fiction; Story Collections; and Easy. Each entry is given subject headings based on the Sears List of Subject Headings. Some entries have brief annotations, all entries are photocopied library catalog cards. Suggested grade levels are also indicated as follows: Primary (K-3); Intermediate (4-6); Junior High (7-9); and Senior High (10-12). In some instances, additional comments regarding maturity level, reading level, and interest level are given. (Author/HC)

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

Mrs. Dolores Gilmore, Media Specialist, Walter Johnson High, and Mrs. Belle Ressler, Media Specialist, Galway Elementary, are the major contributors to this document. However, many other teachers and media specialists submitted titles they thought should be included based on their experience in using the materials with students. Our sincere thanks to each of these contributors.

FOREWORD

This book catalog has been compiled to assist personnel in the selection of media for schools. It is a supplement to previously published bibliographies: Negroes In American Life, 1968; Negroes In American Life, Supplement 1969; Negroes In American Life (nonprint media), 1971; and The Black Story, 1969.

The contents of this listing as compared to the earlier bibliographies, has been extended to include African history, folklore, and literature, as well as present day life in Africa.

This listing is arranged by the Dewey Decimal Classification system. The subject headings used are based on the 10th edition of Sears List of Subject Headings.

Grade levels are indicated as follows:

P - Primary (K-3)
K - Intermediate (4-6)
J - Junior High (7-9)
S - Senior High (10-12)

The assigning of grade levels is at best a subjective judgment; however, in some instances we have added additional comments regarding maturity level, reading level, and interest level.
